Stories matter. She proved it.

When India's entrepreneurial ecosystem was taking shape, she gave it a stage by:

- ✓ Building India's largest startup media house .
- ✓ Covering 200,000+ stories of entrepreneurs, innovators, and changemakers

Meet Shradha Sharma, the pioneer of India's startup storytelling.

Humble beginnings

Born in Patna, Bihar, Shradha grew up in a lower-middle-class family.

She grew up with big dreams, shaped by her parents' belief in education and her mother's quiet strength.

When dreams outgrew Patna

Bihar in the 80s & 90s was not easy for girls.

Opportunities were scarce. Dreams often dismissed.

Shradha chose to leave Patna for Delhi, seeking education, freedom, and a chance to grow.

From classrooms to newsrooms

St. Stephen's College » MICA.

History, design, digital management — Shradha honed her skills and stepped into the media industry.

2006: The spark

Working at The Times of India and CNBC-TV18, she saw India's entrepreneurs go unheard.

Big corporations made the news. Small founders didn't.

A question surfaced:

Why can't their stories be told?

That moment became the spark for YourStory.

2008: The leap

With ₹2 lakh in savings and help from IIT Bombay students, she launched YourStory as a blog.

A year later, she quit her secure job. The mission was personal, powerful, and clear.

Backers who believed early — from ecosystem legends to startup riders

Invested in by ecosystem veterans: Late Ratan Tata, Kalaari Capital, UC-RNT Fund.

And by startup founders who found their voice on the platform — like Bhavish Aggarwal, Vijay Shekhar Sharma, and Ankur Jain.

From a blog to a powerhouse!

- ✓ 200,000+ stories told.
- ✓ 10M+ readers monthly.
- ✓ 20+ digital assets.
- ✓ 5M+ subscribers.

From being a first-of-its-kind platform, YourStory became the heartbeat of India's startup culture & helped fuel India's startup revolution.

What made YourStory unique?

YourStory didn't just publish stories — it gave visibility to small-town dreamers, first-gen founders, and women entrepreneurs.

- ✓ Connected entrepreneurs with the right people.
- ✓ Built a community around entrepreneurship.
- ✓ Shaped investor confidence.

2010: Shradha launched TechSparks, YourStory's startup conference.

A first-of-its-kind event for entrepreneurs, investors, policymakers & dreamers to come together and network.

Many of today's biggest names (Ola, Freshworks, Razorpay, Meesho) were early-stage players first showcased at TechSparks.
